

MONTHLY STATISTICAL SUMMARY OF WESTERN AUSTRALIA

SEPTEMBER 1969

NOTES

1. Statistics shown in this publication are the latest available at the date of preparation. Many of the figures appearing in this Summary are therefore preliminary and may be amended in subsequent issues. Reference should therefore always be made to the latest available issue.
2. Several tables contain figures which have been rounded (to thousands or, in some cases, millions), without making those adjustments which would be needed to make the rounded figures add to the rounded total. It is for this reason that figures do not always add to the totals shown in the tables.
3. Population estimates for 30 September 1967 were the first to be made for a date subsequent to the repeal of section 127 of the Australian Constitution, which required that 'in reckoning the numbers of the people of the Commonwealth, or of a State or other part of the Commonwealth, aboriginal natives shall not be counted'. Accordingly, current estimates no longer exclude full-blood Aborigines. Estimates shown in this publication for dates and periods earlier than 30 September 1967 also relate to total population, i.e. including Aborigines.
Vital statistics also are now compiled on a basis which includes vital events among the whole population, including Aborigines. These statistics were first prepared in respect of the March quarter 1967, statistics for earlier periods remaining on the old basis.
4. The employment estimates shown on page 8 in this publication are not directly comparable with statistics derived from the 1966 Population Census, for which new work force definitions were adopted. Revised estimates for each month from June 1966 to March 1969 will be published by the Commonwealth Statistician, Canberra in a special bulletin to be issued shortly. This new series will be based on 1966 Census benchmarks and will therefore be at a higher level than the present series. In due course the estimates for periods prior to the Census of June 1966 will be revised, but on a basis comparable with that of the 1961 Census benchmarks, the information needed to revise these benchmarks on the 1966 Census basis not being available. The present series will not be continued beyond February 1969.
5. In its decision of 8 July 1966 in the Basic Wage, Margins and Total Wages Cases of 1966, the Commonwealth Conciliation and Arbitration Commission announced that it intended to grant relief to low wage earners by inserting a provision in awards prescribing a minimum wage. The provisions inserted in the awards state that no adult male employee shall be paid at less than the prescribed minimum rates as ordinary rates of pay in respect of the ordinary hours of work prescribed in the award. The minimum weekly wage rates prescribed were the appropriate basic wages plus $3.75 a week. These minimum wages prescribed in Commonwealth awards are shown in the table at the foot of page 10 together with changes in the rates since they were first introduced.
6. Additional information may be obtained, if required, for many of the series published in this Summary by contacting the appropriate section of this Office (Telephone 21 8041).

16 November	31.96	23.97	1968 - 22 November (b)	35.45	27.08

(a) The rates shown are those which applied until a decision of The Western Australian Industrial Commission dated 27 June 1967. The terms of this decision were that the minimum weekly wage payable to adult male workers under certain awards be increased from $36.55 to $37.55; 'that the wage rates for adult workers not in receipt of the "minimum wage" be increased by 60 cents per week; and that other wage rates be adjusted as if the basic wage for males and the basic wage for females had been increased by that amount'. These increases were declared to operate from the beginning of the first pay-period commencing on or after 1 July 1967. A further increase of $1.35 a week for adult males and adult females was granted by the Industrial Commission in October 1968 to operate from the beginning of the first pay-period commencing on or after 25 October 1968. (b) Rates prescribed under the provisions of the Industrial Arbitration Act Amendment Act, 1968.

(a) Figures are shown to one decimal place to avoid distortions that would occur in rounding off the index numbers to the nearest whole number. (b) Prices for all items in the index were not collected prior to July 1968 and imputation was necessary in a number of cases. Consequently, movements shown by index numbers prior to July 1968 include movements of imputed price series. (c) Includes the groups Electrical installation materials and Mechanical services components. The whole of the former group, and the majority of the items in the latter group are based on Sydney and Melbourne price series.

(a) Comprises hire purchase and other instalment credit operations. The latter includes such schemes as budget accounts, time payments and personal loans for the purchase of goods at retail in which repayment is made by regular, predetermined instalments. Details of the operations of 'Retail Businesses' as well as those of 'Non-Retail Finance Businesses' are included. 'Retail Businesses' include retailers who finance their own instalment credit agreements either themselves or through subsidiaries set up solely for this purpose. 'Non-Retail Finance Businesses' include those which finance the sale of goods by retail, but do not retail goods themselves. (b) Excludes hiring charges, interest and insurance, etc. (c) Includes furniture and furnishings, domestic refrigerators, electrical goods, radios, musical instruments, bicycles and other household and personal goods.

(a) Most cargoes are recorded in terms of the ton weight of 2,240 lb but some cargo, consisting mainly of bulky commodities, is recorded on the basis of the ton measurement, a unit equivalent to 40 cubic feet of space. Statistics are compiled accordingly in terms of 'tons weight' or 'tons measurement'. In order to provide a ready comparison, as in this table, of the volume of cargo discharged or shipped the amounts recorded in the two categories have been aggregated.
